

Trust thou thy Love

John Ruskin

Trust thou thy Love; if she be proud, is she not sweet?

The first system of music is in 4/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It consists of two staves: a treble staff and a bass staff. The treble staff contains the vocal line with lyrics and includes two triplet markings over the words 'proud,' and 'is she not sweet?'. The bass staff provides a simple accompaniment.

Trust thou thy Love; if she be mute, is she not pure?

The second system continues the piece. It features the same two-staff format. The treble staff has triplet markings over 'proud,' and 'is she not pure?'. The bass staff continues the accompaniment.

Lay thou thy soul full in her hands, low at her feet;

The third system continues. The treble staff has a triplet marking over 'low at her feet;'. The bass staff continues the accompaniment.

Fail, Sun and Breath; - yet, for thy peace, she shall endure!

The fourth and final system of music. The treble staff has a triplet marking over 'yet, for thy peace, she shall endure!'. The bass staff continues the accompaniment and ends with a double bar line.
